

East Side Saloons To Be Made Over Into Men's Clubs

Urbain J. Ledoux Promotes
Plan to Provide Meals,
Home Life and Lodging
for Former Breadliners

The first organized effort to establish clubs for men of moderate means, to absorb the "forum functions" of the saloon, is being made, Urbain J. Ledoux sponsor and backer of the first post-war breadline, announced last night.

A group of practical men, he said, are looking over twenty-five conveniently situated saloons on the East Side with a view of taking them over, changing only the beverages, as men's clubs. Mr. Ledoux said he will supervise the establishment and management of the clubs. He will seek to secure the cooperation of prominent churches in the vicinity. The Rev. Dr. Guthrie, of St. Marks-in-the-Bouwerie, has assured the project the support of his church.

Cooperative Idea Adopted

As outlined by Mr. Ledoux the plan provides for the conduct of the clubs on a cooperative basis, the customers or members sharing in all expenses and profits.

Former breadliners, men who obtained positions through the Breadline Employment Service, now talking to more than 400, will form the nucleus of the membership. These men are now boarding at Mr. Ledoux's Stepping Stone Missions at 44 Bowery and 203 East Ninth Street.

The "bartending" will be done by volunteers, each member giving part of his leisure time to dispensing coffee and food and keeping the establishments clean and attractive. In this way, Mr. Ledoux expects a full return on the investment will be realized and a sense of ownership and pride imbued in the membership.

Only slight changes will be made in the fixtures. The garish combina-
